

Alcea rosea “Chater’s Double”

Common Name: Hollyhock

Bloom Time: Early Summer to Late Summer

Height: To 7’

Exposure: Full Sun

General Information: Tall columns of fluffy double blooms in a mix of pink, purple, red, salmon, white and yellow; best used against a wall or fence; good cut flower; attractive to hummingbirds.