

Black-Eyed Susan Vine

Thunbergia alata 'Sunrise Surprise'

This mix is entirely new, but the soft, antique colors look like something you might find in an old photograph of great-grandmother's garden! Sunrise Surprise takes the ever-popular, pure American Black-Eyed Susan Vine to new heights with glorious shades of rose, salmon, apricot, and ivory, all overlaid with a vintage look! Just as easy to grow and bloom-happy as the original orange-yellow combo, Sunrise Surprise is a colorful joy that you'll want for all your patio containers, trellises, the annual border, and anywhere else you want a splash of bold color!
