

Calibrachoa “Tequila Sunrise”

Exposure: Sun; Shade reduces flowering

Blooms: Summer to Frost

Height: 3-6”

General Information: This plant is attractive to bees, butterflies, and/or birds. Requires consistently moist soil; do not let dry out between waterings. Calibrachoa flowers are fragrant, and it is suitable for growth in containers. A member of the petunia family.